Happy Easter!

Bunnies are cuddly, the large and the small, but the chocolate ones are the best of them all!!

That saying is so true; at least my daughter and I agree with it. ☺ We have the saying in stamp form and in rub-on form. I already have a page designed for it. ☺ Happy Easter to everyone!!

We had another special occasion this month, already!! Our daughter, Cassie Lynn has turned sweet 16 on the 1st. HAPPY BIRTHDAY CASSIE LYNN!! I knew this day would come, however, I just didn't know it was going to come sooo quickly!! The time has gone way too quickly for me! You know I have taken a ton of pictures and I try so hard to keep her scrapbooks caught up. However, life just seems to move a little too fast for me at times. Now that she is 16 she will be on the road soon. She takes her driver's test on the 7th. She is a very good driver; I am not worried about that. It is the letting go part that I am having such a hard time with! One of my friends told me (and you know who you are ☺) that watching them drive off for the first time on their own, is almost as hard as sending them to the first day of kindergarten. Who wants to bet there will be tears on that day?!?!? (and my hubby will just laugh at me ☺) We are so blessed that she is growing up to be such a wonderful young lady! There are so many different stages of life that we have to adjust to. Some are easier than other, and some take a little more time to get through. I have learned to live in the moment and not worry so much about the future. Each day is a gift from God, and what we do with it is our gift to God.

Enjoy today, no matter where you are, or what stage of life you are in. God is near and He loves you!!

New Stamps of the Month

We have received our New Stamp of the Month from Great Impressions. It is an adorable Garden Shed Stamp. Perfect timing for spring! I do believe spring is finally here to stay. You will smile when you see the card samples. They will have you thinking of spring for sure! The coordinating stamps for this month are just as adorable as the stamp of the month is. You can visit our website and go to our photo gallery to see the card samples and the stamps.

Our New House Mouse will be arriving any day now! Just a reminder that we receive the new one a month before anyone else! So that means that we will have May's new stamp release! You can see pictures of these stamps on our website as well.

Northwood's Rubber Stamps have done it again! Their Easter Stamp and board was fantastic! Their newest board that was released was a beautiful wildlife/nature board. The stamps are wonderful. Perfect stamps for men cards. This company out does themselves every time!!
