

It's no April Fool's....we are getting in full swing for spring here in Branson Missouri ! I can't believe we are ready to start another season. Lots of folks came out for Spring Break during March. The town looked like it should instead of the bleak winter we had. I am ready for sunshine, families having fun, and even the traffic is a welcome sight ! Another sure sign Spring is here to stay is the emergence of my resident groundhog that lives under my front porch. I surprised him going out for the mail the other day and he scurried to hide. I call him Toby and he has lived there for years.... I suspect there have been many "Toby's"....at least one being a "Tobyetta" . She had 4 babies and the neighbor's said they came out and basked on the porch every day after we left for work, just like a bunch of old lazy hound dogs. Alas, I never got any pictures, but I don't have any groundhog paper or stickers anyway ! But I do have lots of other NEW PAPERS....

NEW Super Hero papers and stickers... so fun and designed to fit any hero your little one likes to be.
