I'm Back !!!!! From CHA , that is ! It put me a little behind on things around the shop, but it was worth it ! That is why the newsletter is a little late this month, but you will forgive me when you see all the cool new goodies I ordered from the trade Show for you ! There were aisles and aisles of new product to look at and I was literally the last one to leave the show floor as it shut down the last day. They rolled up the carpet behind me as I stepped off into the sunset. I'm not sure what will arrive when, but as a teaser, some of the new items discovered include a NEW Stamp company with sweet little characters so fun to color with the Copic markers.(These should arrive any day now) I couldn't get enough of doing their make and takes. Matter of fact I got in trouble from my sweet husband when it was time to go eat and I was still playing ! Yes, Troy went with me and was a great help. He even did some make and takes so I could have the samples to bring home to you guys. There aren't that many men there, as you can imagine, so he got a lot of attention everywhere he went.

I ordered Lots and lots of NEW paper collections and I also found some new tools including new Sew Easy line, Distressing tools, punches, dies. All the new Spellbinder's are ordered and should be in before too long as well as all the new stuff Tim Holtz has to offer including his new line of tote bags ! So many cool new dies and embossing folders from Sizzix and Hero Arts – yes they have partnered together to offer stamps and matching dies. Those taking my TO DIE FOR class will get to use these. I ordered several NEW Project books – should be here any day. I already got the invoice. O.K, I think that's enough of a teaser. I don't want to put the cart before the horse , because I'm not sure when the various items will ship, but I do know that due to some very diligent work, I'm at the top of the list for almost all of them, so I will be among the first to have these items in store.

Now for the items that have ALREADY ARRIVED !

- 1) NEW Christmas Papers from several companies
- 2) New EK punches that make stacked embellishments
- 3) New EK punches that make chain garland
- 4) Lots of Paper-Soft color – super blendable for flawless fading from one color to the next. Sky and landscape effects or tie-dye effects. FUN!
- 5) Lots and lots of Glitter liners and Pearl pens – I ordered ALL the colors !
- 6) Kanzashi Flower Makers – Cool templates to make your own fabric flowers.
- 7) NEW JustRite Stampers for Christmas and Halloween and matching dies.
- 8) New Hero Arts Stamp sets plus NEW Christmas and Halloween will be here in a few days.
