HAPPY 4TH OF JULY!!

Wow! A month of summer vacation all ready gone. ☺ You know summer only officially began June 21st, and I know many of you are already tired of the heat. I'm one of those people who love and welcomes the heat! I can't get enough of it! I have had the opportunity this year to experience allergies for the very first time, and I find it very unpleasant! I can really feel for you all who suffer year after year. I will have much more empathy for my hubby each spring and fall! School did let out at the end of May; however, our summer really began last weekend. We had to find our summer rhythm, and Cassie Lynn still had summer school and piano lessons. So we were still pretty well scheduled. That all ended last Wed! YEAH! Now we can be a little more carefree. ☺ We kicked off our summer with a weekend camping trip! Let's just say that was an experience and that is a story for another newsletter. ☺ We are planning our next outing real soon. We love being outside, and if we are all together we are having a great time! Blackberries and blueberries are wonderful this year! We did our annual Father's Day blueberry picking; we even had the grandkids with us this year. I just love fresh fruit and all the fresh veggies from our small, local produce stands! What a great time of year!!!! We wish everyone has a safe and happy 4th of July weekend! Enjoy your family, the food, weather, fireworks, and don't forget to snap those pictures so you have plenty to scrapbook!!!

*Then join hand in hand, brave Americans all! By uniting we stand, by dividing we fall.

We just received what Northwood's Stamps holiday boards will be looking like. You won't be disappointed! The boards will begin to arrive in July!!! We have received, and still are receiving NEW stamps in. Yes, I am already gearing up and ordering for fall and Christmas. This is the ½ way mark, we have to at least think about all those holiday cards we plan to create. Next thing you'll know it will be December. (What a thought!!!!!!)

About the Store.....

As I said above; July is half way through the year. I have to be thinking about fall, Halloween, and Christmas too, even in this hot summer sun. And the CHA show happened at the end of June. So you may see some of our sections getting slimmer than normal, especially our holiday sections, – NO WORRIES! – I dislike holes and empty spots in the store, and I'm just as anxious as you are for all the NEW items to arrive. However, I have to make room for all the NEW items. I try to time is just so; out with the old, in with the new! I have pre-ordered the products; they are on their way, And they will be awesome!!! It will be worth the wait! ☺

What's New?!?!?!?!?!?

You know we have brought NEW items into the store!! You will definitely want to stop in and look at all the NEW things we have on the shelves!!
